FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CMSA DONATES $5,000 TO SPECIAL OLYMPICS

(CMSA, Cerritos, CA) – The California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) announced its donation of $5,000 to the Southern California Special Olympics on Saturday, April 16, 2011, during the CMSA 93rd Annual Convention held at the Hilton La Jolla Torrey Pines in La Jolla, Calif.

Special Olympics volunteer coach Terri Stashak and her daughter, Special Olympics athlete Katie Stashak, were present to accept the donation. Both thanked CMSA members for their generosity in donating funds to the Special Olympics, and expressed how the Special Olympics helps participants build self-confidence and relationships with their coaches and fellow athletes. Coach Stashak informed Convention Delegates that the Association's donation will assist eight Special Olympics participants in attending the 2011 Special Olympics World Summer Games in Greece.

CMSA chapters throughout California hold various fundraising events during the year to support CMSA charities. This year's donation to the Special Olympics included money from the David Menne Memorial Fund. David Menne was a CMSA Chairman (2002-2003), and a supporter of the Special Olympics.
