May 12, 2011 - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOODY NAMED 2011-2012 CHAIRMAN OF CMSA

(CMSA, Cerritos, CA) – Dennis Doody, President of Blue Chip Moving & Storage, Inc., an agent for Mayflower Transit Moving Company, of Hawthorne, Calif., was named Chairman of the California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) on April 16, 2011, during the CMSA 93rd Annual Convention held in La Jolla, Calif.

Doody successfully operates his family-owned and locally-operated business that was started by his father Richard Doody. Dennis Doody's years of work within the industry and his commitment to the CMSA made him an excellent choice for the chairmanship.

Blue Chip Moving & Storage, Inc. has been an active member in the Association for more than 20 years. Throughout the company's membership, Doody and his staff have enthusiastically participated in CMSA Los Angeles Chapter activities as well as general Association events.

Dennis Doody officially accepted the position with the passing of the CMSA's ceremonial gavel from Senior Chairman Brian Larson, Vice President of Sales from Mother Lode Van & Storage. The passing of the gavel took place during the Chairman's Ball, where Doody gave his acceptance speech in front of his family and CMSA members. In his acceptance speech, Doody vowed to keep his eyes open to new possibilities while Chairman and perform the duties to the best of his ability.

The CMSA is a non-profit trade association representing over 385 licensed and insured movers operating in California. The CMSA also includes more than 135 associate member companies. Established in 1916, the CMSA is comprised of 12 Chapters strategically located throughout California.

2010-2011 CMSA Chairman Brian Larson hands off the ceremonial gavel to Dennis Doody, 2011-2012 CMSA Chairman, shortly after Dennis's acceptance speech.

2011-2012 CMSA Chairman Dennis Doody gives his acceptance speech in front of CMSA members at the Chairman's Dinner at the 93rd Annual Convention.
