May 25, 2016 — FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CMSA CENTRAL VALLEY CHAPTER ANNOUNCED CHAPTER OF THE YEAR AT 2016 CONVENTION IN OLYMPIC VALLEY

CERRITOS, Calif. (May 25, 2016) — The California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) gave its Chapter of the Year award to the Central Valley Chapter during its 98th Annual Convention at the 2016 Convention's Gold Medal Luncheon on Saturday, May 14. Central Valley Chapter President Mia Longoria of Lambert Transfer & Storage, an agent of American Red Ball Van Lines, in Lemoore, Calif. accepted the award on the chapter's behalf. The convention was held at the Resort at Squaw Creek in Olympic Valley.

Mia Longoria, the Local DPS Manager for Lambert Transfer & Storage, thanked the associate members and mover members for their participation and contributions throughout the year. She asked Jeanette Homan, president and CEO of Lambert Enterprises, Inc., to join her on stage as she accepted the award plaque.

The Central Valley Chapter raised funds through its successful Texas Hold-Em Poker Tournament at Tachi Palace Resort & Casino. Longoria presented the chapter's donations of $5,500 to the CMSA Charities Fund and $1,000 to Operation Homefront.

The California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) is a nonprofit trade association representing more than 375 licensed and insured movers operating in California. The CMSA also includes more than 195 associate member companies. Established in 1916, the CMSA is comprised of 12 chapters strategically located throughout California.
